

Mayor Straz Reads to Students

Recently Mayor Straz read to Fifth Grade students at St. Alexander School. He participated in the Rocking Chair Reader program, which brings community members into the classroom. His reading of Testing Miss Malarkey by Judy Finchler was especially meaningful because the students were involved in standardized testing the following week.

